2.0 Policy

Whilst we have a low-risk appetite and control measures in place to mitigate incidents we acknowledge that at times they occur and we will follow all legislative guidelines, the NDIS (Incident Management and Reportable Incident) Rules and abide by our organisational values to support, respond, manage, and resolve any incidents in a person centred, trauma informed way. We will utilise our Incident Management System to learn and continuously improve to prevent harm, abuse, and neglect of people with disability.

If an incident occurs with a participant in connection with the provision of NDIS supports or services that results in a near miss, minor injury, or harm, we will follow our incident management procedure. Examples of near miss, minor injury or harm include:

- b. Any type of minor injury to the participant, ie cuts themselves with a knife, crushes finger in car door
- c. Participant is verbally abused by someone.

- g. Noticeable changes in financial situation, ie suddenly can't afford their normal living expenses, asking for money, items missing from their home.
